

Recessed Bath Accessories

The Executive

The Combo Holder

The Executive Collection is perhaps the most versatile and diversified in our series of recessed accessories. The edge detail is designed to match the Executive Collection towel caddies and magazine racks. They also match a number of our bathing pools and basins. The combo holders are designed to provide ample space for those items so essential to the shower users personal hygiene.

As with all other Six-Eleven products, this collection is available in Exyte*, Aluminyx, Granatex and many custom colors.

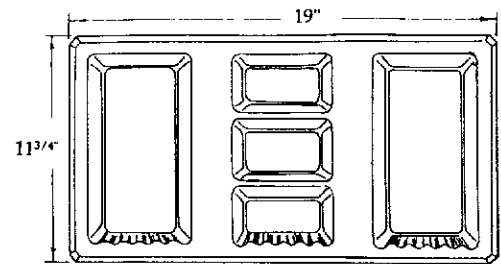

Note that when using the large unit, more than normal stud-to-stud space is needed. Make proper preparations.
